1 Joint Pretrial Order be extended by twenty-one (21) days and will now be due on January 12, 2 2021. The request for extension is due to absences associated with precautions for COVID-19.
3 Specifically, the main paralegal working with Plaintiff's counsel on this case has been 4 hospitalized with COVID-19 related issues and has been unable to work since December 4, 5 2020. The parties hope and anticipate that this additional time would allow for the staffing
6 issues related to handling this case to resolve so that this Joint Pretrial Order can be completed
7 per the Court's Order.
